An approval from the landlord is a requirement for subletting your apartment. Illegal subletting of an apartment may constitute grounds for termination of the apartment, as well as approval based on incorrect information. The processing time may be up to three (3) weeks from the receipt of a complete application by Kalmarhem AB. As a first-hand contractor, you are responsible for your apartment, even when second hand rentals are made.

Documents supporting your application must be attached, such as employer's certificate, acceptance notice or travel documents. In the case of second-hand rental of student housing, the second-hand tenant must also show a certificate of study from Linnaeus University.
